

Submitting Images and artist information to the WPVA web site.

If you are a paid member of WPVA you are entitled to have your own page in the member section. On your page you can have up to 6 images of your work. Each piece can include title and description of that piece. You may also include an outside URL to your web site and a short artists statement.

Following are the directions for for submitting your images and information about yourself and work.

Images:

Amount: 3-6 images

Large Image: 432 on the longest side

Thumbnail: 100 on longest side

Format: .jpg medium-high compression

Naming conventions: Name your images like this; YourName1.jpg, YourName2.jpg, YourName3.jpg. Do not use spaces in your image names and capitalize the first initial of your first and last name.

Artist Statement:

Please provide a brief artist statement of 100 words or less

Titles and descriptions:

Please give a title for each image. Descriptions are optional. Use the number created in the image name to correspond the image to deception and title. Descriptions should be no longer that 25 words.

How to submit:

You may submit your images to webmaven@wpva-mn.org. You can also mail images by contacting me at this email address and I will give you my address.

Use TextEdit (Mac) or Notepad(PC) to write your descriptions or just include descriptions in the body on an email. Please do not use Word or AppleWorks to submit your written information unless it is your only option.

Images and content may be submitted via email to webmaven@wpva-mn.org or the above address.

Only electronic content will be accepted. Pictures, slides, and descriptions on paper will not be accepted. Submissions can take up to a month to show up on the web site.
